

St. Anthony of Padua Parish Participation Voucher

Each family wishing to participate in the parish subsidy program to be considered active parishioners of St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church is required to complete this form, have it signed by the pastor, and return it to the St. John Paul II School Office. Without this signed form, your family will be assumed non-participating parishioners and charged the standard tuition rate. Your status as a participating parishioner will be verified annually.

Families who are relocating to the Moore County area must submit this voucher signed by their current pastor in order to be eligible for the participating parishioner rate. The Catholic transfer status will be valid for a six-month period. After six months, a voucher from St. Anthony of Padua will be required.
